General Order No. 16, Series 1862

The historical record indicates that civilians accompanying the Army of Mississippi on the Perryville campaign were exceedingly few in number. Therefore, General Order No. 11 issued on the 13th instant must be reemphasized.

The following is promulgated for the Perryville Campaign:

- I. Civilian participants are barred from camping in the Military Camp without prior approval from the General Commanding.
- II. Application for exemption may be made by applying to the AAG prior to the event.
- III. Ample accommodation has been made by the Park for Civilians in the Mixed Camp, which is conveniently located with respect to the Military Camp.
- IV. Civilians who desire to enter the Military Camp will request permission from Army Headquarters
