HEADQUARTERS, Army of Mississippi
Near Perryville, KY, September, 1st, 1862

The Deputy Commander is pleased to announce Pvt. H. Rick Compton, 1st Tennessee Infantry Regiment, Company B will serve as Provost for the mixed camp during the upcoming campaign into Kentucky. He is to be respected and obeyed accordingly.

The Deputy Commander is pleased to further announce that Michael Sheets from the Western Virginia Military Academy will serve as the Aide de Camp for the mixed camp in the upcoming campaign with the rank of 1st Lieutenant. He is to be respected and obeyed accordingly.

Furthermore, the Western Virginia Military Academy has seen fit to provide us with a company of cadets to support the upcoming campaign. These individuals are fine examples of our future and will be deployed and utilized in various policing duties throughout camp. They will be under the direct command and supervision of Lt. Michael Sheets.
